Toshiba launches three new stylish portable DVD players

- Three stylish and compact new models available in 17.5cm (7") and 22.5cm (9") screen sizes
  - A digital tuner model enables users to view Freeview
- Up to four hour battery life enables users to watch back-to-back movies on one single charge
  - DivX, MP3 and JPEG formats supported across models

London, UK, 10th February 2010 – Toshiba UK today strengthens its portable DVD range with the launch of three new players that combine style with high quality playback. Available in 7" (SDP74) and 9" (SDP94) screen sizes, the new models offer the perfect way to watch DVDs on the go, displaying movies with rich colour and vibrancy. A digital tuner model (SDP94DT) also enables users to view Freeview alongside DVDs, making it ultra-versatile for hours of entertainment.

All three models are ideal for users looking for a slim, portable player that can easily fit into a briefcase or hand luggage, and won't need constant charging. With up to four hours of battery life available from the integrated pack, one full charge gives users the opportunity to watch up to two films without having to plug in – making it perfect for long journeys.

The new models offer a compact, smart and sleek design – with the 17.5cm (7") DVD model and 22.5cm (9") digital tuner model available in classic white, and the 22.5cm (9") DVD version in a tasteful gloss black. The players all come with a full accessory kit, featuring a car adapter, headphones, carry case and remote control.

The range also features extensive support for digital media content, including the popular DivX format, MP3 music files and JPEG images – providing a wealth of options to keep users entertained. All models offer an integrated SDHC card slot, to give users the option of playing media directly from memory cards with no disc required.
